

Helping with healthcare challenges

When you or your family have healthcare issues, they can be overwhelming and time-consuming to deal with. Our team of experts is skilled at working with healthcare providers, insurance companies, and other organizations to solve a wide range of complex problems. We'll do the work for you, so you can save time, money, and worry. Here's how we can help with your healthcare and insurance issues.

Resolving benefits and claims

Our team of advocates will:

- Review your coverage and explain the rules that apply to your benefits
- Research and fix any problems with claims, billing issues, and denials
- Help you understand any out-of-pocket costs you might have
- Work with your providers and health plan to resolve any issues

Understanding your coverage

We can help you with things like:

- Deductibles, copays, and other financial responsibilities
- Knowing the difference between preventive care and care for a condition
- Prior authorization rules and using in-network vs. out-of-network providers
- Healthcare accounts, such as Flexible Spending Accounts, Health Savings Accounts, and Health Reimbursement Accounts

Helping with appeals

If you need to appeal a decision, we can:

- Answer your questions about your appeal rights
- Explain the appeals process
- Try to resolve any coverage disputes by talking to the right people
- Help you make a strong case for coverage
- Gather supporting documents and help you write your appeal letter

Helping the whole family

Our services are available to your whole family, including your spouse, dependents, parents, and in-laws. We're here to make sure your healthcare and insurance needs are taken care of.
